

Its A Cra-Crazy Life of Intention: Find His love and Hope and plan on Purpose

Cra-Crazy Life of Intention was birthed in my thinking when after about a year and a half of mentoring a handful of teens, and watching them struggle. The reason this book was written was to share life, some good and not so much. But the best part of this book are the hearts of those who helped write it. The next best part is to present hope to the reader, with a perspective changing viewpoint presented by the writer. While seasons in life are hard, you can be assured that they will not last forever....thats the hope. The most important matter presented here is to present the reality that God is the answer to every difficulty this life offers. Be blessed as you read and consider the stories of lifes challenges. Hopefully you will be able to relate and reconsider your own place and direction of your own lifes choices. Hopefully you will consider a life lived for Him, and be encouraged.
